The North Adelaide Heritage Group maintains one Australia's finest collections of heritage accommodation in Adelaide's most cosmopolitan precinct. Each enchants with its own historic vibe, ranging from funky, to retro, to baronial – it's your choice.

How funky can they get? How about sleeping with a fire engine? You can in the Fire Engine Suite, where a genuine 1942 workhorse rests (and, yes, you can sit in the driver's seat). There's a king-sized spa and oodles of memorabilia including the firemen's pole. Kids and kids-at-heart will love the experience of staying in Adelaide's first fire station.

And for something completely different, try the 1909 Arts and Crafts period Buxton Manor, which offers a range of self-contained suites catering to the most discerning guest. We love the four- and five-room George Lowe Esq and Music Viva apartments, the two-storey Garden and Loft apartment, The Butlers' and the adorable Paprika Cottage, tucked away in half an acre of heritage gardens, with herbaceous borders, sweeping lawns and mature trees. This is a stately stay.

Location: Five minutes from Adelaide CBD. Map 1. RA 64 F4.

Facilities: 18 private suites, apartments and cottages with ensuite or private bathrooms (most with spa), phones, each with two or three bedrooms, full kitchen or kitchenette, most with private lounge, dining room. Room service available. Full breakfast provisions provided.
